Schechter students learn how to learn

Language Arts – just one of the many things we do to Engage, Empower & Inspire our students.

- Schechter students have consistently qualified for the state level of The Power of the Pen writing competition – 11 consecutive years and counting!
- Schechter is the ONLY Jewish day school in Cleveland to qualify for the state level of the competition.
- Our graduates move on to Honors and AP English classes in public and private high schools.
- Our alumni include... journalists, attorneys, advertising executives, social workers, rabbis, script writers, fundraisers
